

FILM PROOF WAIVER

It is the policy of Reno Typographers, Inc. to make an analog proof of any film that we produce. This is to allow both you and Reno Type the opportunity to review the work for quality and correctness PRIOR to printing or publication. Many aspects of this work cannot be reviewed properly without a proof.

Understanding the importance of a proof, I authorize Reno Typographers, Inc. to without a proof, or without showing a proof, and accept full responsibility for the quality and correctness of the finished product. I understand that all errors, including those made by Reno Typographers, Inc. or its agents are my responsibility, and that I will bear any and all costs arising of my decision to print or publish this film.
