

PRINTING PROOF WAIVER

It is the policy of Reno Typographers, Inc. to make a hard-copy proof of any work to be printed, and obtain a release signature prior to printing. This is to give both you and Reno Type the opportunity to review the work for quality and correctness. Without the proof, many aspects of the job cannot be properly evaluated,

Understanding the importance of a proof, I authorize Reno Typographers, Inc. to Print the job described as:

Deliver all work henceforth without a proof, or without showing a proof, and accept full responsibility for the quality and correctness of the finished product. I understand that all errors, including those made by Reno Typographers, Inc. or its agents are my responsibility, and that I will bear any and all costs arising of my decision to print.
